WORDS BY VALERIO FARBER

In celebration of our new airport concept store, we've tasked our friends from across the company to recommend their favorite places in the city. Between all of them, we've put together the ultimate weekend guide. Whether you're just passing through or giving the city a little more time, these are the places you won't want to miss. And don't forget to swing by the shop for the coolest airport shopping experience... maybe ever.

DRINK

No guide would be complete without some options for where to let loose once the sun sets. There's no shortage of nice bars in the city, but we've lowered it down to a select few. Bavazzoli offers some of the city's most creative cocktails, plus it sports a buzzy patio that's friendly for people watching. Just down the block is Bar Scotch, an Italian style cafe and cocktail bar with stylish digs.
